Dear Members and Friends,

We are pleased to announce our plans for the NAACP Culpeper Branch #7058, 2021 Freedom Fund Virtual Banquet. This year's event, themed Pioneering Overdue Conversations, Instigating Overdue Justice, will be held virtually on Saturday, October 2, at noon. We encourage you to save the date for this special event and to consider supporting this important annual fundraiser by purchasing program tickets, raffle tickets, and advertising.

Our keynote speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Roscoe D. Cooper, Jr, lead pastor of the Metropolitan African American Baptist Church in Richmond. We will also enjoy presentations and remarks from an exceptional roster of speakers, musicians, poets, and community leaders, with a particular emphasis on our local youth, including our 2021 NAACP Culpeper scholarship winners and our Black History Month essay contest winners.

We will share more information on our website, NAACPCulpeper.org. Please refer to the second page of this letter for information about tickets, advertising, and raffle donation opportunities. Sponsors will be prominently showcased during the event, on our website, and in pre-event advertising. Please consider attending and supporting us as we celebrate our 40th year of the Freedom Fund Banquet for our local branch in support of our mission to pursue political, educational, social, and economic equality.

Sincerely,
